DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1) A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 2/12/07 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2) The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

3) Claims 1, 4-7, 9 and 11-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. The specification makes no mention of the first and second elements having uninterrupted surfaces of rotation. Please note that the cross-section of the elected embodiment does not show the entire domed surface and it cannot be determined that there are no apertures.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4) The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5) Claims 1, 4-7, 9 and 11-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Bach et al (3679159) in view of Hall (3554527).

Bach et al teaches an energy-absorbing pad with uninterrupted elements (17, 19, 20).

In re claims 1, 4, 7, 9, 11-14 and 17-20, Hall provides an energy absorbing padding capable of use in a motor vehicle comprising: a first base layer (34, figure 4) having a planar first face, a planar second face, and a plurality of integrally formed first elements each having a first surface of rotation defining an enclosed first hollow interior (38); and a second base layer (32) having the same properties as the first base layer.

IN re claims 5-6, 15-16, Hall provides the second face of the first base layer is attached to the first face of the second base layer. Please note that bonding is read as being affixed because bonding can be considered a process.

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to have provided the padding of Bach et al with elements like that of Hall merely to provide an element which is capable of absorbing a great amount of energy and is efficient.

Response to Arguments

- 6) Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1 and 13 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
